ORDER GRANTING A COMMUTATION OF SENTENCE OF TIME SERVED TO HENRY C. BRADSHAW

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS OF THE UNITED STATES

WHEREAS, Section 11 of the Revised Organic Act of 1954, as amended, authorizes the Governor of the Virgin Islands of the United States to grant clemency; and

WHEREAS, in exercising that authority, the Governor of the Virgin Islands of the United States set a process in place to consider applications for clemency; and

WHEREAS, prior to a decision of the Governor, applications for clemency were subjected to several steps of consideration, which included, but were not limited to:

- a. a review of the application and case by the Office of Legal Counsel, OGG;
- b. a request for comment of the Attorney General, VI Department of Justice;
- c. a request for comment of the Director, Virgin Islands Bureau of Corrections;
- d. a request for comment of the Virgin Islands Parole Board;
- e. a request for comment of the Commissioner, Virgin Islands Police Department;
- f. a request for comment of the Director, VI Bureau of Internal Revenue; and,
- g. a request for comment, to the extent possible, from victims and/or from surviving family members of victims; and

WHEREAS, the Governor took note and guidance from Program Statement 5050.49, Compassionate Release/Reduction in Sentence: Procedures for Implementation of 18 U.S.C. §§3582(c)(1)(A) and 4205(g). The Program Statement provides the following guidance for the release or reduction in sentence of elderly inmates upon request of the Federal Bureau of Prisons with medical conditions who meet the following criteria:

- age 65 and older;
- suffer from chronic or serious medical conditions related to the aging process;
- deteriorating mental or physical health that substantially diminishes their ability to function in a correctional facility;

- conventional treatment promises no substantial improvement to their mental or physical condition; or,
- served at least 50% of their sentence;

WHEREAS, the Governor strongly recommends to the Legislature of the Virgin Islands that it adopts a similar statute for the Territory and place the responsibility of Compassionate Release under the jurisdiction and authority of the Virgin Islands Parole Board; and

WHEREAS, the Governor and the Members of the Virgin Islands' Parole Board met and discussed a number of the applications for clemency; and

WHEREAS, the Governor acknowledges and notes for the record that nothing contained in this Order or the process created and utilized herein limits the authority vested in any Governor to exercise his discretion to grant clemency pursuant to Section 11 of the Revised Organic Act of 1954, as amended, as he may determine; and

WHEREAS, the Governor gave serious consideration of compassionate release to prisoners who are serving a sentence of natural life or long sentences of incarceration who have terminal medical illnesses, who are of significant age, who are unable or incapable of performing daily basic human functions without assistance and/or whose annual medical expenses paid by the General Treasury of the Government of the Virgin Islands have become and remain exorbitant; and

WHEREAS, the Governor gave serious consideration of mercy to individuals with a criminal conviction who are serving their sentence, who have served their sentence and who have exhibited remorse; who have and who are making positive contributions to society, who have and who are demonstrating by the conduct of their lives that they have been fully rehabilitated, have learned from their mistakes and warrant a grant of clemency; and

WHEREAS, HENRY C. BRADSHAW, born on January 8, 1942, age 76, was convicted on February 28, 1977 in the District Court of the Virgin Islands for murder in the first degree and sentenced to life in prison without parole or probation, and is currently under the jurisdiction of the VI Bureau of Corrections; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Bradshaw, has been examined by medical personnel of the Bureau of Corrections, and there has been a finding that he substantially meets the criteria for compassionate release. Moreover, his medical costs to the Territory is substantial; and

WHEREAS, the Governor has determined that given these circumstances, there is no more punishment to extract from or rehabilitation to provide to Henry Bradshaw for his crimes against the people of this Territory;

NOW THEREFORE, by the powers vested in me by Section 11 of the Revised Organic Act of 1954, as amended, I, Kenneth E. Mapp, Governor of the Virgin Islands of the United States, hereby grant HENRY C. BRADSHAW a COMMUTATION to TIME SERVED for his conviction in Case No. Criminal No. 213/1976 in the District Court of the Virgin Islands, judgment having been entered on March 30, 1977, and hereby restore his civil rights in all respects to the extent allowable by law. The Director of the Virgin Islands Bureau of Corrections is hereby directed to release HENRY C. BRADSHAW immediately and within the jurisdiction of the Virgin Islands of the United States. However, prior to the release of HENRY C. BRADSHAW, the Director of the Bureau of Corrections is hereby ORDERED to comply with the United States Immigration Detainer by providing the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service with thirty (30) days' notice of Mr. Bradshaw's impending release and that pursuant to 8 C.F.R. §287.7 Mr. Bradshaw be detained for a period not to exceed 48 hours excluding Saturdays, Sundays and federal holidays to provide for INS to assume custody of Mr. Bradshaw.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to this instrument and caused the seal of the Government of the Virgin Islands to be affixed this 22nd day of December, 2018, A.D.

WHEREAS, in exercising that authority, the Governor of the Virgin Islands of the United States set a process in place to consider applications for clemency; and

WHEREAS, prior to a decision of the Governor, applications for clemency were subjected to several steps of consideration, which included, but were not limited to:

- a. a review of the application and case by the Office of Legal Counsel, OGG;
- b. a request for comment of the Attorney General, VI Department of Justice;
- c. a request for comment of the Director, Virgin Islands Bureau of Corrections;
- d. a request for comment of the Virgin Islands Parole Board;
- e. a request for comment of the Commissioner, Virgin Islands Police Department;
- f. a request for comment of the Director, VI Bureau of Internal Revenue; and,
- g. a request for comment, to the extent possible, from victims and/or from surviving family members of victims; and

WHEREAS, the Governor took note and guidance from Program Statement 5050.49, Compassionate Release/Reduction in Sentence: Procedures for Implementation of 18 U.S.C. §§3582(c)(1)(A) and 4205(g). The Program Statement provides the following guidance for the release or reduction in sentence of elderly inmates upon request of the Federal Bureau of Prisons with medical conditions who meet the following criteria:

- age 65 and older;
- suffer from chronic or serious medical conditions related to the aging process;
- deteriorating mental or physical health that substantially diminishes their ability to function in a correctional facility;

- conventional treatment promises no substantial improvement to their mental or physical condition; or,
- have served at least 50% of their sentence;

WHEREAS, the Governor strongly recommends to the Legislature of the Virgin Islands that it adopts a similar statute for the Territory and place the responsibility of Compassionate Release under the jurisdiction and authority of the Virgin Islands Parole Board; and

WHEREAS, the Governor and the Members of the Virgin Islands' Parole Board met and discussed a number of the applications for clemency; and

WHEREAS, the Governor acknowledges and notes for the record that nothing contained in this Order or the process created and utilized herein limits the authority vested in any Governor to exercise his discretion to grant clemency pursuant to Section 11 of the Revised Organic Act of 1954, as amended, as he may determine; and

WHEREAS, the Governor gave serious consideration of compassionate release to prisoners who are serving a sentence of natural life or long sentences of incarceration who have terminal medical illnesses, who are of significant age, who are unable or incapable of performing daily basic human functions without assistance and/or whose annual medical expenses paid by the General Treasury of the Government of the Virgin Islands have become and remain exorbitant; and

WHEREAS, the Governor gave serious consideration of mercy to individuals with a criminal conviction who are serving their sentence, who have served their sentence and who have exhibited remorse; who have and who are making positive contributions to society, who have and who are demonstrating by the conduct of their lives that they have been fully rehabilitated, have learned from their mistakes and warrant a grant of clemency; and

WHEREAS, MARK KING, born on August 2, 1959, age 59, was convicted of murder in the first degree in the District Court of the Virgin Islands on April 24, 1979 in Case Number: Criminal No. 32/1979, and sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole or probation; and

WHEREAS, MARK KING is serving his sentence, has exhibited remorse; is making positive contributions to society, is demonstrating by the conduct of his life that he is rehabilitated and have learned from his mistakes; and

WHEREAS, the Governor has determined that given these circumstances, there is no more punishment to extract from or rehabilitation to provide to Mark King for his crimes against the people of the Territory, and he warrants a grant of clemency.

NOW THEREFORE, by the powers vested in me by Section 11 of the Revised Organic Act of 1954, as amended, I, Kenneth E. Mapp, Governor of the Virgin Islands of the United States, hereby grant MARK KING a COMMUTATION to TIME SERVED for his convictions on April 24, 1979 in Case Number: Criminal No. 32/1979 the District Court of the Virgin Islands, judgment having been entered, and hereby restore his civil rights in all respects to the extent allowable by law. The Director of the Virgin Islands Bureau of Corrections is hereby directed to release MARK KING immediately and within the jurisdiction of the Virgin Islands of the United States.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to this instrument and caused the seal of the Government of the Virgin Islands to be affixed this 22nd day of December, 2018, A.D.
